NOTICE TO APPLICANTS AND PARTICIPANTS OF THE FOLLOWING HUD RENTAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS:

- Public Housing (24 CFR 960)
- Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher, including the Disaster Housing Assistance Program (24 CFR 982)
- Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation (24 CFR 882)
- Project-Based Voucher (24 CFR 983)

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development maintains a national repository of debts owed to Public Housing Agencies (PHAs) or Section 8 landlords and adverse information of former participants who have voluntarily or involuntarily terminated participation in one of the above-listed HUD rental assistance programs. This information is maintained within HUD's Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system, which is used by Public Housing Agencies (PHAs) and their management agents to verify employment and income information of program participants, as well as, to reduce administrative and rental assistance payment errors. The EIV system is designed to assist PHAs and HUD in ensuring that families are eligible to participate in HUD rental assistance programs and determining the correct amount of rental assistance a family is eligible for. All PHAs are required to use this system in accordance with HUD regulations at 24 CFR 5.233.

HUD requires PHAs, which administers the above-listed rental housing programs, to report certain information at the conclusion of your participation in a HUD rental assistance program. This notice provides you with information on what information the PHA is required to provide HUD, who will have access to this information, how this information is used and your rights. PHAs are required to provide this notice to all applicants and program participants and you are required to acknowledge receipt of this notice by signing page 2. Each adult household member must sign this form.

What information about you and your tenancy does HUD collect from the PHA?

The following information is collected about each member of your household (family composition): full name, date of birth, and Social Security Number.

The following adverse information is collected once your participation in the housing program has ended, whether you voluntarily or involuntarily move out of an assisted unit:

1. Amount of any balance you owe the PHA or Section 8 landlord (up to $500,000) and explanation for balance owed (i.e. unpaid rent, retroactive rent (due to unreported income and/ or change in family composition) or other charges such as damages, utility charges, etc.); and
2. Whether or not you have entered into a repayment agreement for the amount that you owe the PHA; and
3. Whether or not you have defaulted on a repayment agreement; and
4. Whether or not the PHA has obtained a judgment against you; and
5. Whether or not you have filed for bankruptcy; and
6. The negative reason(s) for your end of participation or any negative status (i.e., abandoned unit, fraud, lease violations, criminal activity, etc.) as of the end of participation date.

Who will have access to the information collected?

This information will be available to HUD employees, PHA employees, and contractors of HUD and PHAs.

How will this information be used?

PHAs will have access to this information during the time of application for rental assistance and reexamination of family income and composition for existing participants. PHAs will be able to access this information to determine a family's suitability for initial or continued rental assistance, and avoid providing limited Federal housing assistance to families who have previously been unable to comply with HUD program requirements. If the reported information is accurate, a PHA may terminate your current rental assistance and deny your future request for HUD rental assistance, subject to PHA policy.

How long is the debt owed and termination information maintained in EIV?

Debt owed and termination information will be maintained in EIV for a period of up to ten (10) years from the end of participation date or such other period consistent with State Law.

What are my rights?

In accordance with the Federal Privacy Act of 1974, as amended (5 USC 552a) and HUD regulations pertaining to its implementation of the Federal Privacy Act of 1974 (24 CFR Part 16), you have the following rights:

1. To have access to your records maintained by HUD, subject to 24 CFR Part 16.
2. To have an administrative review of HUD's initial denial of your request to have access to your records maintained by HUD.
3. To have incorrect information in your record corrected upon written request.
4. To file an appeal request of an initial adverse determination on correction or amendment of record request within 30 calendar days after the issuance of the written denial.
5. To have your record disclosed to a third party upon receipt of your written and signed request.

What do I do if I dispute the debt or termination information reported about me?

If you disagree with the reported information, you should contact in writing the PHA who has reported this information about you. The PHA's name, address, and telephone numbers are listed on the Debts Owed and Termination Report. You have a right to request and obtain a copy of this report from the PHA. Inform the PHA why you dispute the information and provide any documentation that supports your dispute. HUD's record retention policies at 24 CFR Part 908 and 24 CFR Part 982 provide that the PHA may destroy your records three years from the date your participation in the program ends. To ensure the availability of your records, disputes of the original debt or termination information must be made within three years from the end of participation date; otherwise the debt and termination information will be presumed correct. Only the PHA who reported the adverse information about you can delete or correct your record. Your filing of bankruptcy will not result in the removal of debt owed or termination information from HUD's EIV system. However, if you have included this debt in your bankruptcy filing and/or this debt has been discharged by the bankruptcy court, your record will be updated to include the bankruptcy indicator, when you provide the PHA with documentation of your bankruptcy status.

The PHA will notify you in writing of its action regarding your dispute within 30 days of receiving your written dispute. If the PHA determines that the disputed information is incorrect, the PHA will update or delete the record. If the PHA determines that the disputed information is correct, the PHA will provide an explanation as to why the information is correct.

APPENDIX F. NOTICE OF SECTION 214 REQUIREMENTS

NOTICE TO APPLICANTS APPLYING FOR AND TENANTS CURRENTLY RECEIVING SECTION 214 HOUSING ASSISTANCE

The Law. Section 214 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1980, as amended, prohibits the Secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) from making financial assistance available to persons who are other than United States citizens, nationals, or certain categories of eligible noncitizens either applying to or residing in specified Section 214 covered programs. Section 214 was implemented by a final "Noncitizens Rule" entitled, Restrictions on Assistance to Noncitizens which was published in the Federal Register, on Monday, March 20, 1995 (60 FR 14816-4861).

When The Law Became Effective. The Noncitizens Rule became effective on June 19, 1995. Until the final rule took effect, the Housing Authority (HA) was prohibited from taking any action based on the citizenship or eligible immigration status of applicants and tenants.

What The Law Means to You. The receipt of financial housing assistance is contingent upon you and your family submitting evidence either of 1) citizenship, or 2) eligible immigration status.

Type of Programs This Law Applies To. The Noncitizens Rule applies to the following HUD-assisted housing programs:

- 1) Section 8 Rental Certificate Program
- 2) Section 8 Rental Voucher Program
- 3) Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation Program
- 4) Public and Indian Housing Programs

What Persons Are Covered by This Law. Section 214 applies to all applicants who apply for housing assistance, applicants who are already on a waiting list for housing assistance, and tenants who are already receiving housing assistance under a covered program. Section 214 covers: 1) Citizens and 2) Noncitizens who have eligible immigration status.

What Evidence Will Be Required? Each family member, regardless of age, is required to submit the following evidence:

For Citizens or nationals: A signed declaration of U.S. citizenship (whether by birth or naturalization).

For Noncitizens who are 62 years of age or older and receiving housing assistance on June 19, 1995: A signed declaration of eligible immigration status and proof of age.

For All Other Noncitizens. The evidence consists of: 1) a signed declaration of eligible immigration status; 2) the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) documents listed below on this page; and 3) A signed verification consent form.

For All Other Noncitizens, What Immigration Status is Eligible? Under the Noncitizens Rule, a noncitizen would have eligible immigration status under any one of the following six categories which are determined by the INS pursuant to the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA):

- 1. Immigrant Status Under §101(a) (15) or 101(a) (20) of INA. A noncitizen lawfully admitted for permanent residence, as defined by §101(a)(20) of the INA, as an immigrant, as defined by 101(a)(15) of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(20) and 1101(a)(15), respectively [immigrant status]. This category includes a noncitizen admitted under 210 or 210A of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1160 or 1161), [special agricultural worker status], who has been granted lawful temporary resident status.
- 2. Permanent Residence Under §249 of INA. A noncitizen who entered the U.S. before January 1, 1972, or such later date as enacted by law, and has continuously maintained residence in the U.S. since then, and who is not ineligible for citizenship, but who is deemed to be lawfully admitted for permanent residence as a result of an exercise of discretion by the Attorney General under 249 of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1259) [amnesty granted under INA 249].
- 3. Refugee, Asylum, or Conditional Entry Status Under 207, 208 or 203 of INA. A noncitizen who is lawfully present in the U.S. pursuant to an admission under §207 of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1157) [refugee status]; pursuant to the granting of asylum (which has not been terminated) under 208 of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1158) [asylum status]; or as a result of being granted conditional entry under §203(a)(7) of the INA (U.S.C. 1153(a)(7) before April 1, 1980, because of persecution or fear of persecution on account of race, religion, or political opinion or because of being uprooted by catastrophic national calamity [conditional entry status].
- 4. Parole Status Under 212(d) (5) of INA. A noncitizen who is lawfully present in the U.S. as a result of an exercise of discretion by the Attorney General for emergent reasons or reasons deemed strictly in the public interest under 212(d)(5) of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1182(d)(5) [parole status].
- 5. Threat to Life or Freedom Under §243(h) of INA. A noncitizen who is lawfully present in the U.S. as a result of the Attorney General's withholding deportation under 243(h) of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1253(h)) [threat to life or freedom].
- 6. Amnesty Under §245A of INA. A noncitizen lawfully admitted for temporary or permanent residence under §245A of the INA (8 U.S.C. 1255a) [amnesty granted under INA 245A].

8. If other documents are determined by the INS to constitute acceptable evidence of eligible immigration status, they will be announced by notice published in the Federal Register.

Note: Family members are required to submit the original document(s) providing acceptable evidence of eligible immigration status. The HA may not retain the original document(s). HAs must immediately make copies from the original document(s) and return the original documents to the family member.

When Must Evidence of Eligible Immigration Status Be Submitted? Evidence of eligible immigration status must be submitted at the times specified below, subject to any extension granted in accordance with the paragraph below which discusses extensions of time to submit evidence of eligible immigration status.

Applicants. For applicants, the HA must ensure that evidence of eligible immigration status is submitted not later than the date the HA anticipates or has knowledge that verification of other aspects of eligibility for assistance will occur.

Families already receiving assistance on June 19, 1995. For a family already receiving the benefit of assistance in a covered program on June 19, 1995, the required evidence shall be submitted at the first regular reexamination after June 19, 1995, in accordance with program requirements.

New occupants of assisted units. For any new family member(s), the required evidence shall be submitted at the first interim or regular reexamination following the person's occupancy.

Changing participation in a HUD program. Whenever a family applies for admission to a Section 214 covered program, evidence of eligible immigration status is required to be submitted in accordance with the requirements of the Noncitizens Rule unless the family already has submitted the evidence to the HA for a covered program.

One-time evidence requirement for continuous occupancy. For each family member, the family is required to submit evidence of eligible immigration status only one time during continuously-assisted occupancy under any covered program.

What Happens If One Or More Family Members Does Not Qualify? Assistance to a family may not be delayed, denied, or terminated because of the immigration status of a family member except as provided below. "Family" as used herein refers to both applicants and tenants. Assistance to an applicant shall not be delayed or denied, and assistance to a tenant shall not be delayed, denied, or terminated, on the basis of ineligible immigration status of a family member if:

1. The primary and secondary verification of any immigration documents that were timely submitted has not been completed;
2. The family member for whom required evidence has not been submitted has moved from the tenant's dwelling unit;
3. The family member who is determined not to be in an eligible immigration status following INS verification has moved from the tenant's dwelling unit;
4. The INS appeals process has not been concluded;
5. For a tenant, the HA informal hearing process has not been concluded;
6. Assistance is prorated;
7. Assistance for a mixed family is continued; or
8. Deferral of termination of assistance is granted.
9. Assistance to an applicant may be delayed after the conclusion of the INS appeal process, but not denied until the conclusion of the HA informal hearing process, if an informal hearing is requested by the family.

Assistance to an applicant shall be denied, and a tenant's assistance shall be terminated, in accordance with the procedures for any of the following events:

1. Evidence of citizenship (i.e., the Declaration) and eligible immigration status is not submitted by the date specified or by the expiration of any extension granted; or
2. Evidence of citizenship and eligible immigration status is submitted timely, but INS primary and secondary verification does not verify eligible immigration status of a family member; and
 - a. The family does not pursue INS appeal or HA informal hearing rights; or
 - b. INS appeal and HA informal hearing rights are pursued, but the final appeal or hearing decisions are decided against the family member.

What Rights of Appeal Are Available? Three distinct forms of appeal process are available to both applicants and tenants:

1. Appeal to INS. The following instructions apply to the right of appeal to the INS:

- a. Submission of request for appeal. When the HA receives notification that INS secondary verification failed to confirm eligible immigration status, the HA shall notify the family of the results of the INS verification. The family shall have 30 days from the date of the HA's notification to request an appeal of the INS results. The request for appeal shall be made by the family communicating that request in writing directly to the INS. The family must provide the HA with a copy of the written request for appeal and proof of the mailing. For good cause shown, the HA shall grant the family an extension of the time within which to request an appeal.
- b. Documentation to be submitted as part of the appeal to INS. The family shall forward to the designated INS office any additional documentation or written explanation in support of the appeal. The appeal must include a copy of the original Form G-845S received from INS annotated at the top center in bold print: HUD APPEAL. The appeal must also include two stamped envelopes, one addressed to the applicant or tenant family, and one addressed to the HA.
- c. Results of INS Appeal.
 - i. The INS will issue the results of the appeal to the family, with a copy to the HA, within 30 days of its receipt. If, for any reason, the INS is unable to issue a response within the 30-day time period, the INS will inform the family and the HA of the reasons for the delay. Note: The INS response will be indicated in Section B of Form G-845S, Document Verification Request, which is returned to the family and HA. The INS response will be indicated in Section B by a mark in one of the following boxes: 1, 2, 5, 6, 8, 11, 12, 15, or 18.
 - ii. When the HA receives a copy of the INS response, the HA shall notify the family of its right to request an informal hearing on the HA's ineligibility determination.

- d. No delay, denial or termination of assistance until completion of INS appeal process; direct appeal to INS. Pending the completion of the INS appeal, assistance may not be delayed, denied or terminated on the basis of immigration status.

2. Informal hearing with HA.

- a. When request for hearing is to be made. After receiving notification of the INS decision on appeal, or in lieu of requesting an appeal to the INS, the family may request that the HA provide an informal hearing. This request must be made either within 14 days of the date the HA mails or delivers the notice of denial or termination of assistance, or within 14 days of the mailing of the INS appeal decision (established by the date of the postmark).
- b. Extension of time to request hearing. The HA shall extend the period of time for requesting a hearing (for a specified period) upon good cause shown.
- c. Informal hearing procedures.
 - i. For tenants, the procedures for the hearing before the HA are set forth in 24 CFR Part 966.
 - ii. For applicants, the procedures for the informal hearing before the HA are as follows:
 - 1. Hearing before an impartial individual. The applicant shall be provided a hearing before any person(s) designated by the HA (including an officer or employee of the HA), other than a person who made or approved the decision under review, and other than a person who is a subordinate of the person who made or approved the decision;
 - 2. Examination of evidence. The applicant shall be provided the opportunity to examine and copy, at the applicant's expense and at a reasonable time in advance of the hearing, any documents in the possession of the HA pertaining to the applicant's eligibility status, or in the possession of the INS (as permitted by INS requirements), including any records and regulations that may be relevant to the hearing;
 - 3. Presentation of evidence and arguments in support of eligible immigration status. The applicant shall be provided the opportunity to present evidence and arguments in support of eligible immigration status. Evidence may be considered without regard to admissibility under the rules of evidence applicable to judicial proceedings;
 - 4. Controverting evidence of the project owner. The applicant shall be provided the opportunity to controvert evidence relied upon by the HA and to confront and cross-examine all witnesses on whose testimony or information the HA relies;
 - 5. Representation. The applicant shall be entitled to be represented

- by an attorney, or other designee, at the applicant's expense, and to have such person make statements on the applicant's behalf;
6. Interpretive services. The applicant shall be entitled to arrange for an interpreter to attend the hearing, at the expense of the applicant or HA, as may be agreed upon by both parties;
 7. Hearing to be recorded. The applicant shall be entitled to have the hearing recorded by audiotape (a transcript of the hearing may, but is not required to, be provided by the HA); and
 8. Hearing decision. The HA shall provide the family with a written final decision, based solely on the facts presented at the hearing, within 14 days of the date of the HA informal hearing. The decision shall state the basis for the decision.
- 3. Judicial relief. A decision against a family member under the INS appeal process or the HA's informal hearing does not preclude the family from exercising the right, that may otherwise be available, to seek redress directly through judicial procedures.
