Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the Newton Housing Authority's Management Program waiting list. This list includes affordable apartments throughout the City of Newton. Properties have Single Room Occupancy (SRO) apartments, studios, and one-, two-, three-, and four-bedroom apartments available. Rents and income limits may vary by property.

To apply for housing, please answer all of the questions in the application. Below are instructions to help you answer some of the questions:

Question 3: Check if you are interested in applying for subsidized housing or unsubsidized housing (may select both or either one).

- Subsidized housing means that an apartment has a project-based voucher subsidy. If you rent a subsidized apartment, the rent will be 30% of your monthly income. The income limit for subsidized housing is 50% AMI.
- Unsubsidized housing means that the apartment has a set rent that is not based on income. The rent may be adjusted annually. Rent in an unsubsidized apartment varies by property and by number of bedrooms in the apartment. If you have a mobile Section 8 voucher, you can use it in an unsubsidized apartment.

Question 5: How many bedrooms do you believe you need? (Note: You may choose more than one option).

- Single Room Occupancy (SRO) units consist of one bedroom and one bathroom. The living room and kitchen are shared with other residents of the building. Only one person may occupy an SRO unit.
- You may choose more than one option. For example, if there are 3 people in your family, you can apply for a 2-bedroom or 3-bedroom apartment.

If you have any questions or need assistance filling out your application, please contact the Newton Housing Authority at 617-552-5501.

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION

A reasonable accommodation is a modification or change we can make to our apartments or procedures that will allow an eligible tenant with a handicap or disability to enjoy and use rental housing. If you, or a member of your household, have a disability or handicap and as a result need a reasonable accommodation, you must request it, we reserve the right to request documentation of the tenant's disability to substantiate the requested accommodation and why the accommodation is necessary. We are not obliged to provide as a reasonable accommodation a service we do not otherwise provide at the property or for someone who is not a tenant of the property.
